

INDIANS TROUBLE GAME WARDEN

They are Violating the Laws
By Killing Game and Cattle.

SOMETHING MUST BE DONE

"Unless the authorities at Washington take action at once to prevent the wholesale killing of game and cattle by Indians from the Pueblo and Apache reservations in this territory, there will undoubtedly be a clash between ranchmen and settlers and the Indians which will result in bloodshed."

This statement was made the other evening by Page B. Otero, territorial game and fish warden, after a conference with Captain J. F. Fullerton of the mounted police.

"I have repeatedly advised the Washington government regarding the situation, but have received no reply. Settlers in a number of places are organizing with the cattlemen, and make no secret of the fact that they intend to act if the government does not give them relief. I have received a number of reports from different sections where the Indians have left their reservations and taken up their abode many miles distant. Others band together, traveling over the country, hunting all kinds of game without regard to the laws, and then steal back to resume their former life. The principal trouble has been in Socorro, Grant and Sierra counties, where game has been killed in large quantities by the Indians. In some instances where game was scarce, I am informed that the Indians killed cattle. Now some of these Indians came from Bernalillo county, I understand, and from other points equally distant."

"From members of the mounted police I have received information that fresh hides of deer have been found in the possession of Indians recently. These hides and what fresh deer meat the Indians had, were confiscated. It has been reported to me that a number of these Indians had a form of permit, which they believed entitled them to hunt as they pleased. Permits giving them permission to leave the reservation, I understand, have been issued by James K. Allen, of the United States Indian school at Albuquerque, one being dated as late as October 25, and as the hunting season closes October 31, this would only allow these Indians five days in which to travel several hundred miles to hunting grounds."

"The mounted police have been sent out recently after these Indians, and the officers drove them back to their reservations. I have received so many reports from settlers and cattlemen that I consider the situation grave, if something is not done soon to force the Indians to remain upon their reservations and obey the game laws of the territory."

In speaking of the situation, Captain Fullerton said: "I have been making a personal interest and find that game is being killed in large quantities regardless of the laws. The Indians in parties are killing antelope and deer. The antelope suffer more heavily than any other game, because they run in bunches. The Indians 'mill' them and kill every one in the herd. Recently I rode up to a band of Indians hunters and found in their possession the fresh skins of four does. They also had meat which was so fresh that I would swear it had been killed since the close of the game season."

"About thirty Indians, whose names my men have secured, have already been indicted at Socorro and we hope to make an example of them. I am now undertaking the difficult task of arresting all Indians breaking the game law. It is hard to do, however, because they are on the alert. The mounted police will do all in their power to stop the wholesale killing of game and a number of arrests are to be made soon."

WHAT THE KIDNEYS DO.

Their Unceasing Work Keeps Us Strong and Healthy.

All the blood, in the body passes through the kidneys once every three minutes. The kidneys filter the blood. They work night and day. When healthy they remove about 500 grains of impure matter daily; when unhealthy, some part of this impure matter is left in the blood. This brings on many diseases and symptoms—pain in the back, headache, nervousness, hot, dry skin, rheumatism, gout, a gravel disorder of the eye, slight and hearing, dizziness, irregular heart, debility, drowsiness, dropsy, deposits in the urine, etc. But if you keep the filters right you will have no trouble with your kidneys.

Nazario Alarid, of Cerrillos Road, Santa Fe, N. M., says: "I was continually buying medicine for my kidneys. None of the medicine I used had the slightest effect on my kidneys or backache. I felt I was unable to notice any. When an attack of backache reached the violent stage I was compelled to stop work for an hour until the spasm disappeared. When suffering from an attack I got Doan's Kidney Pills. The remedy soon benefited me in every way and removed every symptom of kidney complaint. I heartily recommend Doan's Kidney Pills."

A Tennessee Chaw.

As I was going up the pike the other day I met A. R. Ames riding on a wagon. He was sitting on one side of the wagon and he had such a big chew of tobacco in his mouth that it was all he could do to keep the wagon right side up. He said all he lacked was another man his size who chewed tobacco the size of his balance the wagon.—Sequachee (Tenn.) News.

"I'm against spending a single cent on that road," declared Jimmy Furrows. "It's good enough for me."

"It's the worst road in the country," insisted his neighbor. "Fix that road up and it'll add to the value of every farm on it." If it was a good road we could haul just twice as big loads over it.

"Yes, you fix up that road and what'll happen? It'll be filled with automobiles day and night. No, sir, I'm against it."

The governor of Kansas says the Standard Oil company robs the state of $22,000,000 every year. Gee, don't let the insurance companies hear about it.

Who would have thought there was that much money in Kansas?

"I care not who pays the freight," remarked the president of the big corporation. That is, so long as we get the rebate."

Last Sunday night a crowd of young people went to Mount Zion and acted in a ridiculous manner, according to the report that came to us. We did not get the names and do not want them, but will say as a warning, never do the like again or you will pay well for it. It does not make a boy or young man any better, but lowers his standard in the estimation of all good citizens.

Take warning for your own good and for the public, and show that you are a good citizen, well bred and an honor to your country.—Bellbrook (O.) Moon.

"I suppose you took him for better or worse?"

"No, I took him for what he was worth."
